

KIWANIS CLUB OF PEACHTREE ATLANTA
MAY 30, 2006 PROGRAM

Our guest speaker today was Ms. Beatrice Gasibo who is President/Executive Director of Mexican-American Business Chamber of Commerce (MABCC). In sharing with us about MABCC, the following points were noted:

1. The Mexican-American Business Chamber of Commerce is a non-profit organization established to promote two major goals, namely: To increase the number of Hispanic-owned businesses in Atlanta and to foster relationships among businesses, associations, individuals, and government.
2. Among the various events and programs sponsored by MABCC, included are Networking Breakfast, Business Luncheons, Round Tables, Golf Tournament, and La Posada (which is an annual celebration that includes singing, dancing, and eating delicious Mexican foods).
3. The organization news organ is the MABC Communicator which is published monthly.
4. Additional information may be secured from Web site: www.mexicanchamber.org.
